

22 August 1963

Major General Richard Collins
Headquarters, USA Intelligence Center
Fort Holabird, Maryland

Dear Dick:

Attached is one of our obituaries for [redacted] who will report after Labor Day as the Agency's faculty member at the Defense Intelligence School. 25X1

He did an outstanding job for Admiral [redacted] and, according to our Training people, he should be a valuable addition to the DIS. 25X1

After it has served its purposes, I would suggest that you destroy the attachment.

Faithfully yours,

IS/ Pat

Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Pat,

Thank you very much for the background on your future faculty member at the Defense Intelligence School. In accordance with your instructions, the documents have been destroyed.

Although I have a great deal of interest in the future course of the Defense Intelligence School, I have now no official connection with it. I feel sure that when the future course has been determined, there may well be some "fallout" for our school here at Holabird.

I suppose one of the most difficult things, after a long service in Washington, is the feeling of isolation and separation from the heart of events that sets in. Consequently, I read with great interest what I now am permitted to see of the products of your Agency and of DIA.

My best wishes to all.

Sincerely yours,

RICHARD COLLINS
